

Are you interested in event coordination and live music?
Ever wanted to organise your own gig?

This is an opportunity for you to join a team of young people in Palmerston who will work together to put on three family-friendly, all-ages gigs for the community. You'll receive group training and one-on-one mentoring and have a small budget to create something really special.

The City of Palmerston is looking for 5 young (12-25 years) event coordinators who are keen to help us put on 3 events that show off amazing local music talent and celebrate the community. The 5 event coordinators will work with local producer Amy Hetherington to take their events from ideas to reality.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- You'll receive a small payment for your time
- You'll have access to space at City of Palmerston to work from
- You'll have a small budget and access to gig gear to put on your event
- You'll get one-on-one mentoring to make sure the event runs smoothly
- You'll get to put on an all-ages outdoor gig for everyone to enjoy
- You'll gain skills, confidence and a super awesome project for your resume
- The gigs will be held once on Saturday 16 June, Saturday 14 July and Saturday 18 August
- The first workshop will be held on the afternoon of Thursday 17 May 2018
