

26 April 2023

Palmerston Multicultural Festival is back!

City of Palmerston is proud to announce the return of the Multicultural Festival, set to take place at Goyder Square, Palmerston CBD, 4:30pm to 8:00pm on Saturday 29 April.

Palmerston Multicultural Festival will feature a variety of live music, dance performances, food stalls and more to showcase some of the many cultures that are present in our own community.

The exciting line-up includes:

- Australian Vietnamese Family Association
- Bachata Dance by Gloria Androver
- Chinese Flute Player by STEPS Group
- Colombian Traditional dance
- Darwin Divine Divas Feather Fan Dance
- Filipino Martial Arts Stick Fighting
- Fire Show by Tip Top Circus
- Five-Piece Band by STEPS Group
- Jordan Ravi
- Kazakhstan National Dance by Russian Speaking Community NT
- Lion Dance by Chung Wah Society and Lion Dance Troupe
- PHL the Beat
- Tai Chi by Vietnamese Buddhist Society
- Traditional Bengali Musical Moments by Puja and Cultural Association of Northern Territory (PACANT)

Mayor Athina Pascoe-Bell said, "Palmerston Multicultural Festival is a wonderful opportunity to come together as a community and celebrate our diversity. Palmerston is home to people from all corners of the globe, and this is a fabulous opportunity to sing, dance, eat, and experience the many different cultures we have in our city".

The family-friendly festival is FREE to attend.

For more information about the Palmerston Multicultural Festival, head to: palmerston.nt.gov.au

– ENDS –

Media Contact: 0427 548 014
media@palmerston.nt.gov.au