FINAL CALL TO RECOGNISE LOCAL EXCELLENCE

Palmerston residents have just days to nominate the exceptional individuals and community events that make Palmerston a vibrant and caring community.

Nominations for the 2025 Palmerston Australia Day awards which include Citizen of the Year, Young Citizen of the Year and Community Event of the Year awards will close on Sunday 10 November.

City of Palmerston Mayor, Athina Pascoe-Bell highlighted the significance of these awards and encouraged the community to submit a nomination, saying "If you know of an individual or group that has been doing fabulous things in our community, please nominate them for these prestigious awards.

"A few minutes of your time and a nomination is all it takes to help recognise someone's great work," she said.

Nominees could be community leaders, role models, people who go above and beyond to improve the lives of others or quiet achievers.

Nominees will be invited to a special event in January to thank them for their valuable contribution to our community. The awards will be presented at City of Palmerston's Australia Day ceremony, held on 26 January 2025 at the Palmerston Recreation Centre.
