PALMERSTON CELEBRATES THE STRENGTH OF IT'S WOMEN WITH INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S WEEK

3 March 2025

City of Palmerston will support various community groups and organisations to help celebrate International Women's Day (IWD) with a week-of free events designed to educate, uplift and celebrate women everywhere.

The engaging and empowering week offers free activities and events from Monday 3 to Saturday 8 March, with this year's theme being 'Marching Forward'. We are focusing on pushing boundaries, health and wellbeing, networking and gender equality.

Events are being held across a number of locations throughout Palmerston including City of Palmerston Library, SWELL and Gray Community Hall. For the full details of the weeks events please visit the website.

STRIVE: Women pushing boundaries hosted by Vibrant Diverse Cultures Inc

City of Palmerston Mayor, Athina Pascoe-Bell will be a part of the celebrations, officially opening the City of Palmerston Library art exhibition at the Beyond the Books: Marching Forward in Art event.

“International Women’s Day provides a safe space to support and inspire. The events being held in Palmerston celebrate and embrace the women in our community and the contributions they make. I look forward to celebrating this week alongside some of them”, she said.

These events are thanks to the IWD working group that is: Northern Territory Government, City of Palmerston, City of Palmerston Library, Belgravia, STEPS Group, PaRBA, NT Working Women’s Shelter and Vibrant Diverse Cultures Inc.
